

United States to Resist Any Attempt of Japan to Increase Naval Strength

PLAIN TALK MAY SOON GO ACROSS CONFERENCE TABLE

Japanese Hint They Want Seven
Warships to Every Ten of
U. S. and Britain

Far East Today

All Nations Expected to Express Views on China's "Bill of Rights"

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, Nov. 18. — Japan's request for an increase in the proportional strength of her navy may lead to some plain talk across the conference table of the arms conference. The American delegation stands ready to dispute stubbornly any material change from the ratio set forth in the American plan. That ratio, it was emphasized by highest authorities today, reflects existing proportional strength and so cannot be altered without upsetting the fundamental principle of the whole plan.

In effect, the American figures would give Japan six fighting ships to every ten owned by the United States and every ten owned by Great Britain. The Japanese have hinted, but never formally announced, that they were given to every ten. The naval experts of the United States really believe that five to ten is nearer the proper allotment. Great Britain has accepted the six to ten in principle, but her spokesmen have been silent about the new Japanese proposals.

If it turns out that the "slightly greater" naval force suggested for Japan by Admiral Baron Kato only amounts to the addition of one battle cruiser to the Japanese fleet, then the emphatic objections of the American delegates may not be deemed necessary. But if the suggestion comprehends a real change in proportion, it is declared on authority that a determined diplomatic struggle will result.

The clear delineation of the American position on this subject served to turn attention again to naval armaments today, while the Far Eastern negotiations were at a standstill to permit the powers to work out details of their policy. Neither the conference, nor any of its committees met during the day, but the nine delegations will assemble tomorrow in executive session to resume their discussion of the Far East.

Agreement Won't Be Limited.

Coincident with the disclosure of the American viewpoint on naval reductions, it was revealed today that the administration does not propose to limit the armament agreement if there is one, to the nations represented in the Washington conference. Whether a treaty or simply an "understanding" would come out of the negotiations, administration officials would not predict, but it was said that whatever the form of agreement, the other interested nations would be asked to participate.

Should no treaty requiring senate confirmation result, it was said to be the belief of the administration that the whole armament reduction program could be put through without congressional action. International "understandings" of policy do not require the approval of congress and officials said the proposed scrapping of warships could be accomplished under general authority already possessed by the executive.

There was every indication tonight that all the powers would go into tomorrow's Far Eastern conference fully prepared to express their views on the plan presented as a basis of discussion by China. During the two-day recess, the foreign delegations have been in touch with their governments and although not all may desire to make detailed statements of their views at this stage of the negotiations, there is a general expectation that some progress will be possible.

Developed Step by Step.

The Japanese, in particular, indicated that they preferred to have their policies developed step by step as the negotiations continue. They were prepared to ask for an interpretation of some of the Chinese "ten points" and seemed especially interested in the proposal for the re-examination of all compacts affecting China. Should China desire to reopen what Japan regards as "closed incidents," the step will be opposed determinedly.

General support of China's aspirations for national development free from the restrictions that hitherto have surrounded her, was expressed today among the British delegates, who declared their government ready to give up the extra territorial privilege as seen as Chinese courts were sufficiently developed to guarantee justice. A similar attitude already has been indicated by France and the United States.

London, Nov. 18. — The British admiralty's announcement today that it had ordered the cessation of all work on the four warships of the super-battle class, evoked a chorus of approval in the United States.

prominent authorities throughout England.

Vice Admiral Ballard, in an article published by the Evening News, estimating it will result in an ultimate saving of fifty million pounds sterling. Moreover, he says, it means the abandonment of a design embodying the experiences of the late war in favor of a design to be adopted a decade hence, and that it is conceivable that the decision may lead to the entire disappearance of capital ships.

BRIAND URGES U. S. TO PUT ITSELF IN PLACE OF FRANCE

Washington, Nov. 18. — War would have broken out in Europe three or four times since the signing of the armistice had it not been for the French army, Premier Briand declared today in a conversation with American newspaper correspondents. The French premier was discussing his speech next Monday before the third plenary session of the arms conference which he said would not be an oration, but rather an explanation.

"I shall ask the American people," said he, "to place themselves in the position of the French people for three-quarters of an hour, and survey the European situation as we see it and feel it."

"France does not want a large army any more than you do. We wish it were possible to reduce it below the minimum that we now have in mind, but we must, as we are alone, secure ourselves. France is not asking for any guarantee; she is not asking for anything. If it were possible for Great Britain, the United States and Italy to say, 'If you are attacked, we will be with you,' then it would be possible for us to disarm. But if you simply say, 'Do not be afraid; tranquility yourself; no one is going to attack you,' that is not sufficient."

"There is the Russian army of one million and a half. You may say, 'Why do you mention that? Russia is not attacking you.' Poland is the only country, and if France had not had a strong army last year, the barrier would have fallen. The Soviet troops would have been in Germany. There would have been anarchy in Central Europe. No; we must have an army to secure ourselves and maintain order."

BRITAIN AND CANADA TAKE OPTIMISTIC VIEW OF PARLEY

Washington, Nov. 18. — British spokesmen regard the Washington conference so far as it concerns limitation of naval armament distinctly as a "success," leaving only details to be ironed out.

"I have never been present at a more remarkable conference," said one of them today, speaking for publication. "No conference ever started under happier auspices or with a greater promise of success."

"But," he added, when the question of submarine tonnage was mentioned, "the conference merely results in the substitution of the submarine for the overseas fleet, it would be barren of result. I very strongly hope that the result will be that nations will become less suspicious of one another and eventually render unnecessary both the overseas fleet and the submarine."

"So far as working out a workable plan goes, I should not describe the British suggestion or modification of the American plan as a vital issue to the program."

Canada in Accord With British.

The Canadian view of the issues now pending before the Washington conference in connection with both arms and Far Eastern problems, does not present any marked divergence from that already expressed by spokesmen of the British contingent here.

One of the Canadian representatives, speaking today on the subject of naval armament, rather favored the idea of continuing the efforts initiated in Washington.

AGED WIDOW STRANGLED

Long Island Woman Believed to Be
Victim of Robber's Peddler

Held as Witness
Mineola, Nov. 18. — Found strangled to death in her own home on an old country road near Westbury, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, 82, a widow, is believed by the police to have been the victim of robbers. A piece of shooting was knotted around her throat. Furnishings of the house were disarranged.

Mrs. Miller lived alone in the house for many years. Her body was found by a neighbor, who said she had not seen the aged woman since Wednesday and called to learn if she was ill.

A peddler who spoke little English was arrested tonight in Mineola and held in $5,000 bail by Judge Kohler in Westbury as a material witness. The prisoner denied all knowledge of the crime, but admitted he called at the murdered woman's house yesterday, and she refused to buy from him. The judge said the evidence against the man was weak, but he agreed to hold him while the county authorities continued their investigation.

NEW YORK WANTS TO SWAP.

New York, Nov. 18. — New York has offered to swap its new courthouse site to the government for the federal building property. The city wants to raise the downtown office and add the ground to City Hall park, of which it formerly was a part. Federal Judge Maxton said today that the proposition had been referred to Washington for consideration.

ington to limit expenditures on that account through a series of future conferences. He pointed out that through the development of new agencies of warfare and changing conditions which could not now be foreseen, it might be conceivable that succeeding conferences would be valuable in carrying out the idea in the American mind upon which this conference is based.

As to submarines, it was said that the Canadians had taken no distinctive position on the subject, although they would like to see an end of that method of warfare and the abolition of the submarine except for defensive purposes.

Canada was not particularly interested, it was explained, in the official Japanese idea of raising fortifications in the Pacific because such fortifications as Canada has on the Pacific coast were of a negligible character.

POPE HOPES FOR "HAPPY ISSUE," GARY OPTIMISTIC

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, Nov. 18. — Pope Benedict, in a cablegram to President Harding, has expressed the hope that Almighty God may "grant a happy issue to the initiative taken by the chief magistrate of the great American republic to transmute the trepidation of humanity."

The cablegram from Pope Benedict, received in Washington, read:

"On the eve of the conference assembled for the purpose of settling the grave international questions connected with the Far East and of thus arriving at disarmament, earnestly Almighty God grant a happy issue to the initiative taken by the chief magistrate of the great American republic to transmute the trepidation of humanity."

State department officials were of the opinion that the message had been slightly garbled in transmission.

Others from whom messages were received included King George of England, King Albert of Belgium, President Millerand of France, Emperor Yoshihito of Japan, President Hsu Shi-Chang of China, and President Zayas of Cuba.

Judge Gary's Views.

New York, Nov. 18. — Negotiation of a treaty to prevent future wars in conjunction with an agreement to limit navies was urged today by Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel corporation, in an address before the American Iron and Steel Institute, of which he is president.

He belittled the suggestion that armament limitation would reduce the manufacture of steel, saying the thought was unworthy of even passing notice. Business was improving, he said, but there must be further adjustments.

"With an agreement for the limitation of capital ships," he said, "it would not seem to be practical to stop with less than a final treaty which will prevent future wars."

President Harding and the four selected, able and experienced representatives of this country will energetically and persistently strive for an agreement. They realize their constituents are unconditionally and fervently supporting them in their campaign for peace and limitation of armament and all this is true of each of the other nations."

He asserted that the international arrangement to be concluded must cover every kind of armament heretofore or hereafter discovered.

Failure of the conference he said, was unthinkable.

He briefly dismissed the suggestion that less steel would be manufactured as a result of armament limitation.

"In the first place," he said, "the amount of decreases, if any, which is doubtful, would be small, and even though they might be large, no sane and right spirited person would consider pecuniary interest as of any importance when discussing national or international welfare."

AVERAGE MAN IN U. S. ENDS SCHOOLING IN FIFTH GRADE

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 18. — The biggest problem confronting universities of America is how to give every man who lives in a city of 100,000 or over an opportunity to get a college education, according to Frederick B. Robinson of New York, secretary of the Association of Urban Universities, which is in annual conference here.

A survey of the association shows, Mr. Robinson said, that the average man in the United States ends his schooling in the fifth grade.

"The city of New York has made it possible through its night college classes to take their education no matter how dropped and continue it through the grade and secondary schools, academic courses and professional schools until they have obtained academic and professional degrees," he said.

BILLIARD RECORDS BROKEN.

Chicago, Nov. 18. — All records in 182 billiard billiards were broken here today in the world's championship games by Walker Cochran of San Francisco, when he ran out in five innings, and in the fourth made a high run of 384 in his match with George Sutton of Chicago. Sutton amassed 55 points.

BOMB ONLY FLASH POWDER.

Boston, Nov. 18. — The supposed bomb which was picked up in the steps of the state armory last night was no less than a cone of flashlight powder such as is used in fireworks displayed, State Chemist Walter Wedderburn said today.

YALE AND HARVARD CLASH ON GRIDIRON

In Certain Quarters, the Blue Is Definitely Selected to Defeat
the Crimson Today

(By the Associated Press.)

New York, Nov. 18. — Although the waning of the eastern football season is indicated by the shorter list of contests for tomorrow, the gridiron battles of the week-end involve no lessening of interest. Surmounting all other games of the day, from a sectional standpoint, is the Yale-Harvard clash at Cambridge. For the first time in a decade, the Eli eleven will enter the scrimmage on an odds-on favorite in the wagering.

With a wealth of material in both line, backfield and reserve strength, the Blue, in certain quarters, is definitely selected to defeat the Crimson. The chief basis for this prediction is the defeat of both Princeton and Brown by Yale, as compared with the overthrow of Harvard by the Tigers and the extremely close contest between Brown and the Cambridge team last Saturday.

A careful analysis of the football power and ability of the two teams, however, does not indicate any great preponderance of strength or playing skill for either Yale or Harvard.

The game will be played upon a wet field and this is expected to militate to some extent against Yale's running and rushing attack.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 18. — The annual Yale-Harvard football game, climax of the season for the eleven of those universities and a contest of interest wherever the gridiron game is played, will be fought out here tomorrow before the largest crowd that has ever been seated in the stadium. The spectators will number close to 55,000. The first of these thousands poured into hotels at Boston and nearby places today, and automobile parties arriving tonight without reservations had to go well outside to find first-class accommodations.

With Harvard on the short end of the wagering for the first time in years, there was more money placed than usual. Odds varied from 2 to 1 on Yale, quoted in a few instances, to 10 to 8.

NEW STATE BANK IN MOSCOW

Two Armed Workmen Stand Guard at Main Door; Marks New Economic Policy.

Moscow, Nov. 18. — (By the Associated Press.) — A new state bank was opened today in Moscow in the premises of the old Union bank, with a full staff of old time banking officials and clerks. The date was exactly four years from that on which the Soviet government nationalized and took over all the Russian banks.

Notices are displayed on the walls of the new bank that three per cent interest will be paid on current deposits and five per cent on time deposits. Two workmen with rifles stood guard at the main door.

The opening marks a decided step in the change economic policy, as the bank advertises that it will make loans to corporations and individuals, deal in exchange and handle accounts, guaranteeing them free from confiscation by the government, which declares to restore capitalistic methods in its effort to effect economic reconstruction. Branch banks will be opened shortly in other Russian commercial centers.

BODY OF WOMAN WHO LEFT UTICA HOSPITAL IS FOUND

Syracuse, Nov. 18. — The body of Miss Julia Howarth, 35, who disappeared two weeks ago from a hospital at Utica, was found today in a vacant cottage at Silver Beach, Oneida lake. The authorities are endeavoring to determine the cause of death. Clad only in underclothing, the body lay on the floor, the head on a folded coat. Between $20 and $25 was scattered on the floor.

The woman, for whose return a $1,000 reward had been posted, was a daughter of the late William Howarth, of the Howarth-Ballard Drug company, one of the prominent citizens of Utica.

SENATE-HOUSE CONFEREES RESUME WORK ON TAX BILL

Washington, Nov. 18. — The House having settled the big issue in the tax revision bill by accepting a vote of 201 to 173 the Senate 50 per cent maximum income surtax amendment, Senate and House conferees resumed their negotiations today with a view to reaching an agreement on the bill by tomorrow night.

The vote was taken late yesterday after the House had heard read a letter from President Harding to Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee, suggesting a compromise at a 40 per cent rate.

FORD CALLS ON PRESIDENT.

Washington, Nov. 18. — Henry Ford called on President Harding today. He was ushered into the President's room immediately upon his arrival at the executive offices. He said that his call was merely to pay his respects.

Mr. Ford is here to confer with Secretary Weeks on his offer for private operation of the government's nitrate and waterpower projects at Muscle Shoals, Ala.

WOULD PROTECT MATERNITY.

Washington, Nov. 18. — The House today took up the Sheppard-Towner bill providing for cooperation between the federal government and state in the protection of maternity and infancy. Leaders hoped to obtain a final vote tomorrow on the measure, which was approved several months ago by the senate.

CLAYVILLE CENTENARIAN WAS INVETERATE SMOKER

Utica, Nov. 18. — Edward Bureby, aged 105 years, died at his home in Clayville, near Utica, last night. He was born in Brasher Falls, N. Y., May 1816, and most of his life was spent in that section. He had enjoyed practically unbroken good health until a few hours before his death. Mr. Bureby smoked almost constantly and every night arose three or four times to hit his old pipe. His survivors include one daughter, 85 years old, living in the vicinity of Brasher Falls.

PHYSICIANS TESTIFY AT "FATTY'S" TRIAL

Miss Rappe Might Have Died as Result of Being Immersed in Cold Water, One Asserts

San Francisco, Nov. 18. — Final selection of the jury and the introduction of expert testimony were today's developments in the manslaughter trial of Iosco C. (Fatty) Arbuckle in connection with the death of Virginia Kopp. The court room was crowded for the first time in three days.

Dr. Selby P. Strango, acting city autopsy surgeon, and Dr. William P. Ophuls, who conducted both external and internal examination of Miss Rappe's body, were the first witnesses. They described the injury which is said to have caused Miss Rappe's death. The prosecution accuses Arbuckle of causing this injury.

Dr. Ophuls asked as to whether Miss Rappe's fatal injury might have been caused by sudden immersion in a tub of cold water, said that such an injury was possible from such cause. Miss Rappe was immersed in a tub of cold water during a party in Arbuckle's hotel rooms at which, it is alleged, she was fatally injured.

Gavin McNab, chief counsel for the defense, suggested that no session be held tomorrow on account of the football game between California and Stanford universities. The court said he desired to proceed tomorrow. Court and counsel left the matter to the jury to decide over night.

Five women, four of them married, are on the jury. An alternate juror, Stephen A. Hopkins, a paper merchant, also was sworn.

The names of the jurors follow:

August E. Fritz, cotton goods merchant; John Z. H. Lewis, confectioner; Henry J. Reed, expert accountant; Mrs. Helen M. Hubbard, housewife; Mrs. Kitty L. McDonald, housewife; William H. Torrey, retired livery stable proprietor; Mrs. Dorothy B. O'Don, housewife; Miss Louise E. Winterburn, no occupation; Arthur F. Crane, explosive expert; Clarence C. Sayre, contractor; Mrs. Adeline M. Nelson, housewife; Thomas Kilkenny, candy dealer.

NEW YORK WHIRL FATIGUE'S FOCH

But Marshal of France Will Not Permit Any Part of Tour to Be Canceled

New York, Nov. 18. — It was a tired, tired marshal of France who stole away to rest tonight, long before New York's bedtime, terminating the first hectic day of a three-day visit to America's largest city.

Count de Chambrun, Foch's diplomatic representative, said he had not seen the fatigue lines marked so deeply in the marshal's seamed face since first he steamed into New York harbor and set off to learn as the American Legion's guest, what the United States really thinks of the man who organized victory in the World war.

There was talk of canceling, or at least curtailing, the great projected swing through the Far West, but Foch would not hear of it. For, arduous as his tour has been, the marshal avers he has enjoyed every minute of it and is eager to see more of this "wonderland."

Fatigued though he may have been, the marshal gave no evidences of it to the crowds that turned out to do him honor. He was almost buoyant, as nearly so as the dignified Foch ever could be—when he stepped from his special car at the Pennsylvania terminal and saluted a cheering crowd this morning. He was as nearly jaunty tonight when, after a crowding round of functions that scarcely left him time for a pull at his old briar pipe, he bade the last admirers goodnight at the home of de Lancy Kountze, where he is residing during his stay here.

EIGHT MEMBERS OF FAMILY KILLED WHEN HOUSE FALLS

Mena, Ark., Nov. 18. — Eight members of the family of J. E. Weems, at Wickes, Ark., 26 miles south of here, were killed last night when the Weems' home collapsed during a violent storm. Details are lacking, due to the fact that all wires to Wickes are down, but it is understood little damage was done, except on the Weems' farm.

YACHTING CONTEST PLANNED.

(By the Associated Press.)
London, Nov. 18. — British yachtsmen have decided to challenge America for another yachting contest for the British-American cup to be contested in American water by boats of the six-meter class. It was said yesterday that America had agreed that the race be held under the international rules. The challengers have suggested September as the most suitable month.

ANTI-BEER BILL GOES TO HARDING

Brief Days of "Medical" Beer Are Numbered; Early Executive Approval Seen

Washington, Nov. 18. — The brief days of "medical" beer were considered numbered today when the senate, by a vote of 56 to 22, finally adopted the conference report on the anti-beer bill.

With legislative action concluded, the bill fought over for months now goes to the President, who is expected to give it his approval within the ten-day period in which he may act. It was thought possible, however, that there might be a few days' delay while an opinion as to the constitutionality of the measure was received from the attorney general.

Upon enactment of the bill, whose constitutionality has been questioned in the senate as an extension of the prohibition amendment in its ban upon beer as an alleged medical and not a beverage concoction, it was deemed certain that brewing interests would carry a test case to the supreme court.

Judges prohibiting beer with more than one-half of one per cent of alcohol, the bill would reduce the amount of wine which physicians might prescribe.

Until President Harding signs the bill, treasury officials explained, the treasury regulations now existing would remain in effect and brewers may continue to operate under them. However, officials added, from the moment of the President's signature, action upon the anti-beer bill existing regulations automatically become void.

It was suggested in some quarters that President Harding might delay action upon the anti-beer bill pending an opinion by Attorney General Daugherty upon the constitutionality of the measure.

Swifts Announce Reductions.

Reduction for various classes of employees of the Chicago assembly, practically corresponding to those fixed by the employees of Armour & Company and effective on the same date, November 23, were then announced by company officials, who said they expected the other 18 assemblies of employees to take similar action.

NO LONGER Hylan's FRIEND

Street Cleaning Commissioner Resigns
Following Dispute Over Hiring of Scows.

New York, Nov. 18. — John P. Leo, street cleaning commissioner, today resigned. Mayor Hylan accepted his resignation.

In his letter of resignation, Mr. Leo said:

"I was informed yesterday afternoon that some blackguard had made a statement to you which if true would indicate that in hiring scows for service in this department I had ignored the city's interest for the advantage of the lesser of the scows."

"Further, that without being given a chance by you to make any statement in regard to the matter, you have sent the memorandum to the commissioner of accounts with directions to investigate, which results in placing me in a very humiliating position in that apparently I am an object of suspicion not alone before the underlings of the commissioner of accounts office, but also to the employees of this department."

"I shall ask my personal attorney to advise with the district attorney in order to secure either the indictment of the street cleaning commissioner for official misconduct or an indictment for criminal libel against his traducers."

The Big Five plants have always been known as "open shop" industries. Packing officials say the union membership is largely confined to the smaller plants and that any strike would not affect them seriously.

MACHINE SHOP WORKER DIED A MILLIONAIRE

Nashua, N. H., Nov. 18. — Older residents of this city were convinced today that John K. Stewart, late millionaire maker of speedometers, was Terence O'Brien, a youthful machine shop worker here a quarter of a century ago.

Two brothers and a sister of the dead, who pulled his job and his home in a left hander, he could not whistle at his work, are sure the millionaire and the mechanic were one and the same. They have no intention, however, they said, of seeking any part of the $7,000,000 estate left by Stewart to his family, controversy over the administration of which opened the way to the identification that led here.

The story of Terence O'Brien, as pieced together by his relatives and his friends follows closely that which came out of New York a few days ago in connection with the court proceedings, except that it was here he was born and lived for 21 years, instead of in Vermont.

MRS. HANNA AT REST TODAY.

Washington, Nov. 18. — Funeral services for Mrs. Charlotte Augusta Hanna, widow of the late Senator Marcus A. Hanna of Ohio, who died at her home here last night, will be held in Wade Memorial chapel, Cleveland, at 2 p. m. tomorrow. Interment will be in Lakewood cemetery here. Relatives stated it was their belief that Mrs. Hanna's illness was brought on by the death of her son, Dan K. Hanna, publisher of the Cleveland Leader, about two weeks ago.

PASSION PLAY PRODUCERS REFUSE BIG MOVIE OFFERS

Oberammergau, Bavaria, Nov. 18. — The Passion play committee, which recently has been bombarded by proposals from American moving picture concerns for the privilege of filming the production in 1922, when the play will next be performed, is standing firm in its refusal to allow Jews to participate, despite their poverty, as it puts it.

The committee, it is stated, has refused offers running as high as 700,000 marks, representing a huge fortune to the villagers.

The play, last produced in 1910, was not given in 1920, the regular date, because of the mortality among the performers and musicians caused by the war.

Price of League Milk in December Unchanged

New York, Nov. 18. — The December price of fluid milk delivered to dealers in the 206-210-mile freight zone, will be $3.37 per 100 pounds, three per cent butter fat, the same as in November and October, the Dairy-men's League Cooperative association announced today. Other prices for the month will be:

Milk for soft cheese, plain condensed and cream, 22.25.

Milk for sweetened condensed, evaporated and powdered milk, 15 cents per 100 pounds over the price of milk for butter based on inside and outside quotations for 90-91 score and outside quotations for 82 score, and for higher than 82 score butter in the New York city wholesale market during December.

Milk for hard Italian cheese, and all other classes of similar type, 35 cents per 100 pounds over the price of milk for butter based on inside and outside quotations for 90-91 score and outside quotations for 82 score, and for higher than 82 score butter in the New York city wholesale market during December.

A statement said that farmers probably would realize for average milk (3.5 per cent butter fat) less than 25 cents a quart.

MODERATE SELLING IN STOCK MARKET

Rails, Shippings, Metals Show Strength; Confusion Among Oils, Steels, Equipments

New York, Nov. 18.—Rejection by the house of representatives of President Harding's surtax recommendation, Judge Gary's qualified review of industrial conditions, and suspension of the United States industrial development dividend were among the developments which prompted moderate selling in the stock market today.

The reaction was by no means general, however, as evidenced by the strength of certain issues in the railway, shipping and metal divisions. The steel and oil divisions, however, showed weakness, and retention of dividends by several of the important merchandising companies was indicative of a more confident feeling in commercial circles.

Price movements were most confusing among oils, steels, equipments and motors, those issues showing mixed gains and losses at the close. Speculations of the paper, leather, tin, hacco and utility types eased irregularly in the absence of recent pool support.

For the first time this week, the money market showed a tighter tendency, rail loans rising in their opening rates of 4 1/2 per cent to 5 1/2 per cent in the final hour. This was unexpected in view of the easier tone of time funds for the shorter dates.

Domestic rails and Mexicans were the strong feature of the bond market, together with foreign bonds. The new issue of the New York Telephone company. Most of the Liberty and Victory issues also showed improvement over recent quotations.

FIFTY LEADING COUNTIES.

Five of Them Are in New York State—Delaware Is One.

The Department of Commerce of the United States gave in recent bulletin a list of the 50 leading agricultural counties of the country. First of all is Los Angeles county, Cal., which stands first with crops and livestock products for 1919, valued at $71,000. Two other California counties, Fresno and San Joaquin, are among the first four, and Ansonia, Ala., Lancaster, Pa., are third and fifth respectively.

In the state of New York there are five representatives among the first 50, St. Lawrence being 14th on the list with dairy products, hay and forage and potatoes. Other New York counties are Chautauque, which adds grapes to the above; Steuben, Jefferson and Delaware, the latter county being 16th on the list, and all of them principally interested in dairying. The total value of farm and dairy products in Delaware in 1919 was $19,822,912.

It should be noted that the above figures do not take into account the area of the counties named, and for this reason do not give an absolutely correct idea of fertility, productivity or intensity of cultivation.

NORMAL VARSITY WINS AGAIN.

Local Boys Walk Over Unadilla High to Tune of 63 to 7.

The Normal varsity team took its second straight game of the season at the Normal gym last night, the Varsity this time being the second team of Unadilla High. It could hardly be called a game, as the local boys were complete masters of the situation at all times, and the visitors were unable to do a thing. The final score was 63 to 7.

Glenn and Kinny did the basket work for the Normals, and there seemed to be a groove into which the ball slipped with ease. The Unadilla team was completely snowed under before the game was half over. The score at the midway point was 39 to 7 in favor of the locals, and they held the lead until the end of the game.

Butts played a fine guard game, and the team as a whole showed that they know how to play basketball. The boys are planning to go up against stronger teams in the future. As indicating their work this year, the Normals were twice defeated by Unadilla last year.

Last night's score follows:

Carlbaldis Defeat Heavy Hitters.

The Browns took two out of three games from the Braves at the Y. M. C. A. bowling alleys Thursday night, although the Braves had the best roller on their side—Vivian, who got a total of 550. In spirit, though not in name, the teams rolled as the Carlbaldis versus Rabbitt's heavy hitters, and there was much good-natured "joshing" over the outcome.

WITH THE SUPERVISORS.

Routine Affairs Occupy Delaware Session—Next Session Monday.

Delhi, Nov. 18.—After a short morning session today, the supervisors voted to adjourn until Monday evening, at 9 o'clock.

Thursday's sessions, as well as that of this morning, were largely confined to routine affairs, mostly the presentation of town budgets. Yesterday, Mr. Wheeler of Sidney introduced two resolutions, one appropriating $600 for probation work and one appropriating $1,200 for the County Humane society; both amounts were voted by the board.

Mr. Fowler of Hamden presented the report of the county treasurer showing moneys received and disbursed under the Motor Vehicle law, and it was accepted on motion of Mr. Bruce of Andes. Mr. Smith of Kortright presented claims of William D. Corbin, as executor of the estate of Andrew J. Corbin and James H. Burdick, as executor of the estate of Leroy Burdick, for the refund of taxes illegally assessed; on motion of Mr. Gilbert, these claims were referred to the Law committee. Mr. Bruce of Andes presented the report of James P. Foreman, superintendent of the poor, which was placed on file and on motion of Mr. Evans of Franklin, was accepted.

Andes Road Being Graded.

It is understood that the two steam shovels recently in use grading the Margaretville-Andes state road will be rented and put at work on the Tremontskill county aid road. Seemingly one of the remote villages of Delaware county, with the completion of the Margaretville road connecting it with the trunk line at Arkville, and with a state road already connecting at Delhi with the West Branch Valley system, and the Tremontskill road connecting with the heart of the East Branch valley, Andes village will surely be "right in town."

Spend Thanksgiving in City.

Mr. and Mrs. John Murray leave for New York Monday, where they will spend Thanksgiving. Their daughter, Miss Nerelide Murray, secretary for Congressman Clarke, will join them in New York for the holiday.

Local Notes.

Delaware academy will be closed next Thursday and Friday on account of Thanksgiving. — Edward VanDyke of Liberty is spending a few days in Delhi. For some time past, he has edited the Liberty Register, but on his return to Liberty will engage in other business. — E. B. Sheldon has closed his summer home here and departed for New York city; he expects to pass the winter months in California.

With the Hunters.

One day this week Hamden parties passed through this village with three buck deer strapped to their autos. Howard Hall, who has been in Delhi for several days looking after his lumber interests, reports that on a hunting trip to the Adirondacks he was fortunate enough to shoot a buck and also a black bear.

Several deer have been sighted in the vicinity of Delhi recently. It is supposed the intensive hunting which took place in Ulster and Sullivan counties during the open season scattered the animals.

Miss MacDonald Laid to Rest.

East Meredith, Nov. 18.—Funeral services for the late Miss Adelia MacDonald were held from the Presbyterian church here Wednesday afternoon with Rev. H. A. Armistead officiating. Burial was at Kortright beside her parents. Miss MacDonald was the daughter of Robert and Caroline MacDonald and was born at Kortright 77 years ago. Although she had not been enjoying the best of health for some time, the immediate cause of death was a shock which she suffered on the previous Monday, from which she never rallied and died on Sunday afternoon. She was an upright Christian woman and was respected by all who knew her. She leaves several nieces and nephews.

LOCAL EDITORIAL MENTION.

The Pony Farm Crossing.

The latest accident, a tragic one, at the Pony farm crossing just below this city, emphasizes the previously mentioned fact that the location of the crossing, the number of trains, and other dangerous features makes it desirable that steps be taken looking to greater safety to those making use of the Oneonta-Otsego thoroughfare. Neither an overhead nor an underground crossing could appear at this point to be feasible, and if constructed it would, on account of the lay of the ground, be at very great expense.

Under these circumstances it has been suggested that some better plan than the present one be devised for giving warning at night of approaching trains and consequent danger. The signs made by the swinging lantern may often be misunderstood even in the day, and doubtless there are many by whom the significance of the signals is not known. One plan, which would seem to be a good one, is that of an illuminated banjo signal, for which either electric or other light is available, containing the words "Stop" and "Go Ahead," which could be operated by the switchman and which would have the words large enough and placed in sufficiently prominent position to be seen by any one approaching the crossing either afoot or in a vehicle.

It would appear that the expense of the banjo signal would not be great, and it would flash its warning more effectively than any other which could be used.

A City of Conventions.

During the present week two prominent gatherings have been, or will be held in Oneonta—The State Dairyman's convention, which closed yesterday afternoon, and the Rural Schools conference, to be held today. A little later the County Farm and Home Bureau will draw hundreds for the annual meeting, and there is scarcely a week in the year in which in addition to the big ones, minor gatherings, county, district or state, are not held here. Under these circumstances it is fortunate that the city has an adequately offered and directed Chamber of Commerce, which looks after the preliminary work of these meetings, secures proper quarters, sees to the comfort of visitors, and arranges for the necessary publicity. How well this is done was shown by the flattering remarks of President Richardson of the State Dairyman's association, who on Thursday declared that "never in the 45-years' history of the association has any city entertained us so royally as Oneonta."

This is a matter which every citizen ought to consider when the question of adequate support for a Chamber of Commerce is presented. It is impossible to look after such gatherings unless there is some body of citizens in the community to give proper attention. The acknowledgment made by the Dairyman's association was perhaps more emphatic than usual, but there is no doubt that other organizations also appreciate what the city gladly does, and that when the question of where to go is presented, Oneonta comes naturally to mind. Not only in this matter, but in many others which our citizens understand, a Chamber of Commerce is worth all that it costs, and more, in the way of civic betterment.

Thanksgiving Services.

There is probably no one in Oneonta who does not know that Thanksgiving is near at hand. Also, there is probably no one who, while appreciating the day as one of feasting and of customary home-gathering and general rejoicing, does not also realize that its observance rises to a higher level than mere consideration of things gastronomic—when the note of thanksgiving is shot in the stomach. With this in mind, it is urged that it would be well and in a high sense appropriate should there be larger attendance than usual at the union Thanksgiving services on the morning of Thursday at the United Presbyterian church. Not the whole day need be given to the preparation of the Thanksgiving dinner, or to later festive observance. Instead, the meaning of the day is best expressed by those who for a brief period in the morning at least reverently assemble at the house of prayer, humbly acknowledge their obligation to God and gratefully to give thanks. It will be a genuine and very proper reversion to the custom of the earlier days, if the church on Thursday next is crowded to the doors.

GIVES $100,000 TO HOSPITAL.

Benefaction of Mrs. George F. Johnson to Binghamton Institution.
At a meeting of the directors of the Binghamton City Hospital, held Wednesday afternoon, a letter was read from Mrs. George F. Johnson announcing the gift of $100,000 on her part to that institution. Accompanying the letter was her check for the full amount. The letter stated that the gift was without restrictions and that the money could be used in any way desired to advance the interest and improve the service of the hospital.
While no formal announcement was made, it is believed that a portion of the money will be used for a new home for nurses, which seems at this time to be the most pressing need of the institution.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS

Abolishing Fairies.

Fairies have been abolished in Russia by order of the Soviet commissaries of education.
The old, old stories cannot be told again, and the quaint folk-lore of all places and ages, the heritage of childhood everywhere, is banned.
Realizing the need of substitutes the commissaries have invited authors to write new tales for Russian youngsters under certain restrictions. These must be devoid of all elements of superstition and must contain no mention of angels, fairies and the like. Kings and princes must be described as oppressors of the masses, not as heroes, and the same applies to haughty queens and golden-locked princesses. All mythical or religious subjects also must be avoided. In place of all this it is suggested that the children be interested in the future of mankind, the achievement of science and industry and descriptions of the life of the "telling masses."

What a travesty indeed is this! The essence of such an order perhaps is the most illuminating exposition of Sovietism which has yet come forth. What would we Americans think if the government should by decree abolish fairies. The administration would be laughed out of office.—[St. Paul Pioneer Press.]

He Sees Real War.

The great marshal of France, who commanded 8,000 Yale men in the war and himself became a Yale man on Saturday, watched another Yale field marshal named O'Hearn perform against direction, and approved the performance. No point of the game was lost on the French warrior, gazing at the spectacle through his field glasses. He found the need of morale, supplied in large part by the sympathies of the onlookers. He found the need of "excellent discipline, quick thinking, physical strength." He analyzed the strategy and the formations, and drew parallels from his own career.—[Philadelphia Ledger.]

Topsy-Turvy Economic Conditions.

But what a commentary on conditions that corn should be burned for fuel when millions are starving or are on the verge of starvation, particularly when there is such enough in one state to supply the country for years to come! Was there ever more convincing evidence of the topsy-turvy in the economic plan than this? —[Buffalo News.]

A Case in Point.

Immigration officers again distinguish themselves by sending to Ellis Island the head of a big importing house in Calcutta because of a mere technical error in stating the time for which he expected to be in America as seven months instead of six. Of course, he will be released, but his feeling about buying American goods may be imagined.—[Brooklyn Eagle.]

The Hughes Plan.

Hughes' plan for a naval holiday should be insisted upon in spite of the Japanophobes whether in America or China. The truth is that even from a military viewpoint this country could not go to war with Japan for some years to come and hope to wage a successful offensive campaign in far eastern waters. The cost of adequate preparation for a victorious campaign would be virtually prohibitive. The sensible thing to do is to make sure of the naval holiday and see by proper co-operation with Great Britain to utilize sufficient moral force to keep Japan's ambitions within bounds. —[Springfield Republican.]

Just How It Happened.

We got a little careless. Just as we were going to press, the fool printer slipped on us. They had mislaid the customary head that goes over the wedding write-ups and instead picked up the heading used over news items that a hard working farmer's wife wearies while attending to her household affairs. So that is how it happened that weddings last week appeared under the head "Over the Washboard."—[Watkins, Kan., Times.]

To Learn the Law of Right.

The President wasn't named Gannett for nothing. His ration was coming to sit at his knee. —[Cincinnati Enquirer.]

Enough Coal? Too Little Money.

It is announced that the coal supply will be sufficient for some time to come, and the only question now is as to whether the family purse will hold out.—[Washington Star.]

Out Where the Wheat Begins.

The night cashier overheard a peculiar conversation in Beaver Crossing the other day. A farmer was in a store buying some groceries.
"Want any flour?" asked the grocer.
"No, flour's too high. I can sit alone without it."
After a while the grocer said: "Sold you wheat, Bill?"
"No, I'm going to hang onto mine; they ain't payin' nothing for it yet!" —[Vancouver Province.]

MOTOR VEHICLE FUNDS

NEARLY $1,500 DISTRIBUTED AMONG VARIOUS TOWNS OF THE COUNTY.

Board of Supervisors Approves Allotments at Yesterday's Session—Tentative for Amounts to Be Levied Against Taxable Property of Various Towns Head—Board Adjourns Until Monday Afternoon.

Cooperstown, Nov. 18.—After a day of gloomy, low-hanging clouds and two nights of copious rainfall, the spirits of the assembled supervisors at the opening of their daily meeting here this morning were somewhat gaidened by the prospect of the hazy sun to struggle into sight. Toward noon it succeeded. The air grew balmy and spring-like, and it was thought fairly possible that that vague season known as Indian summer had arrived to bless the haunts of old Natty Bumppo.

As on yesterday, with one exception, very little outside of minor routine was brought before the meeting. The outstanding feature of the day was the resolution offered by Mr. Hall in regard to the allotment of motor vehicle funds. By this resolution, the motor vehicle funds, now in the hands of the county treasurer, amounting to the sum of $14,955.07, are allotted to the several towns of the county in the several sums and amounts set opposite each town in the accompanying list, according to the mileage of highway in each town bears a ratio to the total mileage in the county. The total allotment is slightly over $1,800 dollars more than that of last year, which was $12,112.96. The roll was called and the resolution declared passed.

Petitions for amounts to be levied against taxable property of various towns were read as follows:

Undulla—$25 for Memorial day funds.

Undulla—$545 for paying bond and interest.

Springfield—$1,003.38 for paying deficiency in bridge fund for 1921.

Otsego—$4,725 for paying railroad bonds and interest, maturing 1922.

Otsego—$292.50 against the taxable property of Fly Creek lighting district for lighting Fly Creek.

In addition to the above, Mr. Dickson presented a request from the two commissioners of the Wells Bridge fire district for a tax of $172.20 to be levied against taxable property of that district.

Mr. Hadsell offered a resolution asking that, inasmuch as a communication had been received from Justice Kellogg, claiming the existence of a deficiency in the expense fund subject to his disposal for contingent expenses at supreme court chambers at Oneonta, it be resolved that there be appropriated and made immediately available the sum of $50 to supply such deficiency, and that the county executive be authorized and directed to pay such amount on the warrant or order of Justice Kellogg.

Upon motion of Mr. Locke, the session was declared adjourned until 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Beauty Versus Herrick

Miss Anna Elizabeth Niebel, 18, was a beauty contestant in Washington last summer when Congressman Herrick of Oklahoma proposed legislation against the beauty contests. Miss Niebel has had her mother, Mrs. Emanuel Niebel, New York, appointed her guardian and her attorney says that is preparatory to a suit against Herrick charging breach of promise.

CHRISTMAS SEAL CONFERENCE

Representatives From Ten Counties, Including Otsego, Lay Plans For Selling Seals at Meeting at Albany Thursday.

Definite plans for the 1921 Christmas Seal campaign in the eastern counties of the state were formulated at a conference at the Ten Eyck hotel in Albany Thursday. Miss Nina Short, executive secretary of the Otsego County Tuberculosis committee, represented this section at a meeting at which workers from 10 counties were present.

The quota sought in the state campaign this year is $336,000 a per capita average of 12.3c. The campaign has its appeal this year in the striking decrease in the death rate from tuberculosis in New York state, outside of New York city, in the 14 years in which the state Committee on Tuberculosis and Public Health has directed the fight against the disease.

The state-wide campaign organization has taken shape earlier this year than ever before. Arrangements have been completed in practically all the counties for the mail sale of Christmas Seals. Over 500,000 letters containing $1 or $2 worth of Christmas Seals will be mailed to prospective purchasers throughout the state and teams of workers in each county will personally interview those who will make larger contributions in the form of health bonds, representing Christmas Seals, which are issued in denominations ranging from $5 to $1,000.

Plans for the development of publicity for the Christmas Seal sale received the special attention of the conference. One of the novel features of the campaign this year is a 50-foot film, designed by Tony Sarg, showing Santa Claus and the other figures of the 1921 Christmas Seal coming to life, which is to be used as a trailer in motion picture theatres during the campaign. A unique 24-sheet Christmas Seal poster of full half-toned size will emphasize the Christmas Seal message for a half-mile from the central points in the towns in which they will be displayed. Posters of varying sizes for window displays, auto-wind shield suckers, and Christmas lantern slides are among the other means of keeping the Christmas Seals and the vital cause of community progress for which they stand vividly in the public mind.

The meeting was in charge of Dr. Harvey Dee Brown and Miss Stewart of the State Charities Aid association.

WOULD SEAL AUTO CONTROLS

TO PUT STOP TO SPEEDING

New York, Nov. 18. — Placing of sealed stops on motor truck fuel controls as a means of preventing violations to the speed laws and lessening the danger to human life is to be suggested as an amendment to the city ordinance governing heavy traffic by F. H. LaGuardia, alderman-president.

Election Expenses In.

All the candidates for office in the city of Oneonta filed their election expenses within the ten days required by law, which expired last evening. Most of the candidates had no expenses whatever, and in the case of those who certified to expenditures the sum was merely nominal. The county candidates were required to file their designations with the county commissioners of elections. All these, it is understood, have filed statements for the merely nominal sums paid out.

If you haven't any, I'll help to grow you some. # State Dairymen Bring Convention to a Close

Dean H. E. Cook Elected President At Final Session, Which Is Featured By Timely Addresses; Visitors Enthusiastic Over Success of Annual Meeting and Welcome Accorded Them

Yesterday afternoon's session marked the close of the 15th annual convention of the New York State Dairymen's association and last evening the visitors scattered to their homes in every part of the state, taking with them, it cannot be doubted, much that will help them in keeping New York the foremost agricultural state of the union. The convention has been, in the opinion of association officials, the most successful in the history of the organization from the standpoint of attendance, program and interest shown. The visitors liked Oneonta and the spirit of friendliness and cooperation shown by its citizens and expressed the hope that they might at some future time be again chosen as the meeting place, in which hope they are joined by Oneontans generally.

The morning session yesterday was marked by the election of officers for the coming year. H. E. Cook of Denmark, N. Y., late dean of the agricultural college at St. Lawrence university, was the choice for president. Dean Cook was the retiring vice-president. Prof. W. A. Stocking of Cornell university was elected vice-president. Thomas E. Tiquin of Albany was re-elected secretary of the association, a merited recognition of his labors for the success of this convention and of his almost continuous service with the association since 1904. Harry Bauder of Cobleskill was named as assistant secretary and R. R. Kirkland of Philadelphia, N. Y., was re-elected treasurer. The following were re-chosen as directors: C. A. Brown, Watertown; H. S. Sweetland, South Dayton; Bradley Fuller, Utica; H. C. Lange, New York city; D. W. McLaury, Milford; A. S. Chaplin, Wolcott.

The Morning Session.

The session of the convention yesterday opened promptly at 9:30 o'clock, the first address being by Roscoe W. Thatcher, director of the state experiment station at Geneva. Stating that few farmers realize how much benefit they can derive from the experiment station, Mr. Thatcher outlined the work done there and made a plea for closer contact between the station and the farmer to the end that the most good possible be accomplished. He stated that most of the work had been done in the field of horticulture but that the dairy industry was full as important and would in the future receive more attention. Mr. Thatcher stated that the work of the experiment station was largely that of scientific investigation, finding out the reasons for things which the farmer discovered in practice. The address was most interesting and received the close attention of all.

The second speaker, Dr. R. S. Breed, also of the Geneva experiment station, spoke on "The Milk Industry of New York," an important matter in these days of milking machines on nearly every up-to-date farm. Dr. Breed said that it was easy enough to get rid of the impurities which clog milk; the important matter was to keep out the invisible dirt and disease germs. Directions in detail as to how to clean the milking apparatus were given by Dr. Breed, who stated that the use of milking machines generally resulted in an inferior quality of milk but not through any fault of the apparatus. Proper care would result in the obtaining of just as good milk as by hand methods. In closing, Dr. Breed stated that in his opinion the future would see a greatly increased use of milking machines.

Prof. W. W. Fiske of the state college of agriculture at Ithaca gave the last address of the morning, his subject being, "Requirements in Merchandising Cheese." Prof. Fiske said that the manufacturer of cheese was losing ground in the state because of the great demand for fluid milk. He stated that New York state could make as fine cheese any place in the world but that much of the cheese manufactured in the state was of inferior quality, the reason being the use of inferior quality milk. He made a plea for the making of better cheese and outlined means and methods. Much interest was manifested by those in attendance in his remarks.

DRAWING TEACHERS CONFERENCE.

Annual Meeting for Oneonta and Delaware Held Yesterday at Normal.

The annual Drawing and Industrial Arts conference for the counties of Oneonta and Delaware was held yesterday morning and afternoon in the drawing room at the Normal building. There were 25 in attendance, embracing the art instructors and superintendents of the public schools of the two counties and of the Normal school. The forenoon session included talks on "Teacher Training in Art and Industrial Arts" by Miss Caroline Jenkins of the Oneonta Normal school, and "Elementary Design" by Miss Janie Launt of the Walton High school. The place of Miss Harriet E. Knapp of the State Education department, who was unable to be present, was filled by Leon L. Winslow of the Education department, who explained recent and proposed changes in the curriculum. The afternoon session opened with election of officers as follows: President—Miss M. Janie Launt of Walton. Vice-President—Mrs. Chestney of Canadota. Sec. Treas.—Miss Richardson of Sidney.

Following the business meeting, Mr. Winslow continued his address relative to the Elementary Bulletin, and there was a question box, in which all participated, and a display of exhibits in which all were interested. The meeting was very successful and interesting. The next session of the conference will be held in October, 1922, at Sidney.

PREVIOUS CONVENTION HERE.

State Dairymen's Association Met in Oneonta About 40 Years Ago.

President Richardson of the State Dairymen's association, in responding to the words of welcome from Mayor Ceperley on Wednesday evening, said that this was the first time that the association has met in Oneonta.

Charles H. Baker calls the attention of The Star to the fact that this association met in Oneonta about 40 years ago. He recalls the convention and states that the sessions were held in the Stanton Opera house, the hall now known as Masonic hall in the Spencer-Palmer block at the corner of Main and Chestnut streets.

Harris Lewis was the president of the association and one of the features of the convention was the exhibit by Prof. Stewart of the working parts of the centrifugal separator, which had been perfected though not then in general use. Mr. Baker reports that the convention was largely attended and that many of the prominent dairymen of this section were members and in attendance at the gathering.

ROTE & ROTE

VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR.

Edward W. Brewer, 91 Years Old, Dies
Friday Evening.

Edward W. Brewer, a descendant of the earliest families to settle in the town of Oneonta, died at 6 p. m. Friday after long illness at his home at the Plains Junction. The funeral services, which will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Edison J. Farley, will be held at his late home at 2 p. m. on Monday.

Mr. Brewer, who was 94 years of age, was a son of Jonathan Brewer, who in the earlier years of the nineteenth century owned the South Side property now owned by Charles H. Baker, and which was long known as the Brewer homestead. He formerly owned and conducted a farm in the Winney district in the town of Oneonta, but several years ago purchased the house and lot at the Junction. He was a soldier of the Civil war, serving with distinction in the Third cavalry and at the time of his death was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Surviving are his wife, formerly Miss Jane Barnett, and several nieces and nephews, among them the following: Mrs. Ella Ray Allen of New York, Mrs. S. A. Gishrow, Mrs. George Melius and Philo Brewer of Oneonta; Mrs. George A. Hoyt of Bridgeport, Conn.; Mrs. Flora Dunham and Mrs. Emma Stevens of Schoenectady and Mrs. Albina Wickham of the state of Washington.

Funeral of Stewart Winans Fisk.

Many sorrowing relatives and friends were in attendance at the funeral of Stewart Winans Fisk, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Fisk of Brooklyn, which was held yesterday afternoon at the home of the child's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Winans, 55 Elm street. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. E. J. Farley of the First Baptist church, who read appropriate passages of scripture, followed with a brief comforting address and closed with prayer. There were numerous floral pieces from relatives, friends and organizations in Brooklyn, Oneonta, Johnstown and elsewhere. Among the flowers was a bouquet which the lad himself had made of his mother's birthday, which was not far off. This lay beside him in the casket and will be buried with him. The body was placed in the Mausoleum at the Plains cemetery, pending later interment.

The bearers were Earl Reed, Harold, Ralph and Leslie Winans and Russell Fisk, all uncles of the deceased.

Among those present, from out of the city were Mrs. Floyd Shaw and son, Wesley, of Parkville; Miss Cora Fisk and Russell Fisk of Brooklyn, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Winans of Boston, Mrs. Earl H. Winans and family of Worcester, Harold Winans of Brooklyn, Ruth Winans of New York city, Mr. and Mrs. James Young and Mrs. Henry Palmer of Johnstown, Dr. and Mrs. Leroy Becker of Cobleskill, Mrs. Wilber and daughter, Marion, of Johnstown, and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Dunlop of Olean.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Robert W. Silver.

Mrs. Robert W. Silver of Sidney died at the Clifton Springs sanatorium Thursday morning following an operation for throat trouble. Her condition was not considered critical until after the operation. Tuesday evening Mr. Silver and family were summoned to Clifton Springs by news that she was falling rapidly. The body arrived in Sidney Friday at 11:30 o'clock and the funeral is to be held in that village, it is understood, on Sunday.

Mrs. Silver is the wife of the well-known lumber dealer and a former supervisor of the town of Sidney and was highly esteemed in that village and much sympathy will be expressed for the sorrowing family.

Shipments of Anthracite.

During the month of October there were 5,372,753 tons of anthracite coal shipped from the Pennsylvania mines, which is an increase of 253,371 over the previous month, but a decrease of 368,115 when compared with October, 1920. The short-ago was mainly on account of the idleness of mines in the Scranton districts, which all resumed on November 2. The total shipments from April 1 have exceeded that of 1920 during the same period by 502,690 tons.

The Delaware and Hudson company shipped $98,276 tons during October, which is 157,000 more tons than in September.

Screen artificiality has had to hide its head before the shows that Rupert Hughes has struck for naturalism in photoplays. Since his association with the Goldwyn group of Goldwyn authors, Mr. Hughes has striven to avoid just what most screen authors believe to be "good stuff." Instead of writing melodrama, he has given his entire attention to stories that deal with real people in a simple, realistic manner.

Unlike many other writers whose books find their way to the screen, Mr. Hughes has taken the trouble to learn something about the mechanics of photoplay production. He has spent most of his time during the last year at the Goldwyn studios in Culver City, Cal., not only suggesting and assisting the producing staff, but also in writing the continuities of his own stories. Before taking a hand in the production and his stories, Rupert Hughes spent many months learning just what the photoplay was and cannot do. With this knowledge, he has fashioned his tale within the known limitations of present-day screen technique.

It has been thought that stories for the screen could bear no intimate relation to actual life; and consequently false representations of life found their way to the screen year after year. When Mr. Hughes took up this work he decided to show the photoplay public that their every-day trial and joys could be made as interesting on the screen as the most thrilling melodrama ever filmed. His first photoplay, "Scratch, Mr. Back," and "Hill and Your House," proved to be satires on the follies of a man in the street.

His latest picture, "The Old Nest," coming to the Oneonta Theatre for three days beginning Thursday matinee, November 24 is a simple story of mother love. It is a simple way. Yet so poignant are the episodes, so true to life is the acting, that tears and laughter follow each other as they do in our daily lives.

Not without reason has Rupert Hughes been called the human writer of the screen. His love for the common things of life has made him impatient with the stereotyped plot that have too often weakened otherwise good screen material. Mr. Hughes has realized that one can find tragedy and comedy in the day-to-day incidents of home life, and his screen stories have, therefore, the plots that life itself weaves for us.

In "The Old Nest" the audience is permitted to share the joys and sorrows of a mother in her unselfish devotion to her six children. And as the children, one by one, leave the old nest, the mother and father find themselves as they were in the beginning—alone. Then, the children realize their parents' loneliness, and a natural happy ending brings overwhelming joy to the heart of the lonesome mother. Mr. Hughes considers "The Old Nest" as his best photoplay.

Four generations of the descendants of Ethan Clarke met at the Hotel Oneonta last week to celebrate the centennial of the coming of their ancestor to that village. Mr. Clarke in 1821 bought the State house, then an important tavern on the state turnpike. It was then 25 years old, and it stands now practically as it was a century and a quarter ago.

The members of Oxford have an advertising club which meets monthly to discuss the problems of publicity. A roast pig supper was held at the last meeting, and following the repeat a discussion was held on how "to get the pork."

It is stated that there has been a great increase of ruffed grouse, or partridge, in this state during the past two years. There have been warm and dry springs for breeding and the state conservation commission has waged ceaseless warfare against foxes and great horned owls, which are enemies of the young birds.

Herbert Anderson, son of E. C. Anderson, a former Walton man, will receive the reward of $7,000 for capturing a bandit single handed at Phoenix, Arizona, on Tuesday night of last week. The first point in the case of Kuhl Schelling vs. Charles R. O'Connor and another for $50,000 damages alleged to have been sustained by the wife of the former by being hit by the auto of Mr. O'Connor, has been won by the defendant. Application was made under the new civil practice act for examination of Mr. O'Connor before trial, but Judge Holbrook vacated the notice on the ground that the law is not retroactive and therefore does not apply to an action begun before the law took effect.

The Schenectady Monitor says: The potato game this year is a new one. Every day thirty or forty big trucks, the greater number of them being from Albany, Troy, Schenectady and Colchester, drive out into the potato growing districts and pay the farmers a bonus of about ten cents a bushel above the local market prices, and take the tubers right from the field and haul them to the city markets.
